

Student's opinions

The lecture on "Interpersonal closeness in education, especially in people with disability education", 6th May 2024, delivered by dr Monika Pirczak- Piega to Special Education BA students at University of Debrecen was incredibly useful and insightful. It offered practical tips and strategies for improving communication and fostering meaningful relationships. Students gained a deeper understanding of the importance of closeness in both their personal and academic lives, making it a highly valuable experience.
